FY 76 KIQ STRATEGY REPORT

KIQ 50: What are the prospects for stability in the non-Communist countries of Southeast Asia and for their relations with the US?

Include new political, economic or military alignments that may emerge in Southeast Asia and their implications for US relations in the area, e.g., impact on US base rights and intelligence facilities, regional cooperation and US economic interests.

I. COLLECTION AND PRODUCTION NEEDS

The principal areas on which reporting and analysis are required during the fiscal year are:

Target 1: Policies of Southeast Asian countries vis-a-vis US security interests, including the US presence and access to bases in Thailand and the Philippines; also policies and attitudes of countries in the area with regard to the US presence in the Indian Ocean, and to proposals for regional neutralization and a nuclear-free-zone.

Target 2: Policies of the non-Communist Southeast Asian states with respect to significant threats to internal or regional stability.

Target 3: Policies affecting US economic interests, including attitudes toward overall third world positions, restrictive trade policies, foreign investment, and law of the sea.

Target 4: Moves toward regional cooperation.
